FINANCIAL & BASIC NEEDS

Financial assistance is limited. When a person needs cash financial assistance, he/she should first seek help from his/her own resources (borrowing, working odd jobs, selling assets, trading, etc). Individuals are encouraged to talk with their utility company, landlord, or other agent that money is owed to arrange a payment plan. Persons with money management problems are encouraged to work with a financial counselor or attend budgeting classes. Financial assistance below is intended to offer one-time or limited-time assistance for specific bills.

HOUSING

Persons seeking housing should check classified ads and rental signs. The renter should write out a budget to make sure he/she can afford rent, deposit, utilities, and other expenses. Once the person inspects the property, he/she should read the lease before signing it. A lease is a legal contract that offers protections to both renter and landlord. Subsidized housing for seniors, disabled and low-income persons usually have waiting lists. Subsidized housing allows the renter to pay rent based on the household income, usually about 30% of gross income.
